Senior Belt Test Requirements White Belt – Black Belt Candidate

Your Name: _____ Date: _____

ASKA #: _____ Renewal Date: _____

We are an American Shorin-ryu Karate Association (ASKA) Charter school. By orange belt, all students are required to register as Members. Applications are available at our Academy or you can register online at: <http://www.aska-karate.org/joinrenew/>

General Comments

This booklet is intended to be a reference guide for testing requirements for White Belt through Black Belt Candidate. A student is eligible to test after:

- ✓ Meeting the physical requirements for the target belt
- ✓ Meeting the minimum attendance requirement
- ✓ Earning all six color stripes
- ✓ Receiving Instructor approval
- ✓ Submitting a Graduation Application form

Consideration and alternative requirements may be worked out for students requiring accommodations based on special needs or circumstances. Modifying any requirements with alternative material is at the judgment and flexibility of Head Instructors.

AMERICAN SHORIN-RYU KARATE ASSOCIATION

We are an American Shorin-ryu Karate Association (ASKA) Charter school. This is our national Association, which sets the standards for all promotional rank requirements and provides its member schools with scholarship support, student and instructor clinics and seminars, publications and a rich connection to our past historical lineage and roots. By orange belt (9th kyu), all students are required to register as Members for a $35 annual fee. Membership applications are available at our Academy or you can go online to pay the membership fee: <http://www.aska-karate.org/joinrenew/>

BELT PROMOTIONS

Testing (AKA “Graduation”) takes place once per 3-month session for all belts below black belt candidate (typically in March, June, September, and December). Students must complete a “Graduation Application” prior to each test/graduation.

Each student’s progress is reviewed every quarter. Promotion to the next belt rank is granted upon instructor approval that the student has met all stated requirements. Attendance and stripe requirements are described in this handbook. Instructor approval also considers other progress areas, including attitude, maturity, personal effort, school grades, special needs and accommodations.

ATTENDANCE REQUIREMENTS

The minimum attendance requirement is 21 classes per 3-month session. Make-up sessions count towards this total. If 2 classes are attended on a single day, then 2 attendance credits are counted.

PHYSICAL AND LEADERSHIP REQUIREMENTS

FMAA uses a system of colored stripes that represent the physical and character skills in our curriculum. Stripe definitions and requirements are described on the following page.

TRAINING NOTE

As you work on various partner drills, aim to learn them carefully, with safety for yourself and your partner in mind. You can continue to progressively increase the intensity level, allowing for more realistic footwork, timing, strategic angles and accurate distances. You can progressively and naturally apply dynamic body movement and increase the pressure to respond with your partner to get a more realistic feel. You should be ready and able to demonstrate your skills so that someone watching you and your partner see a credible and believable execution that is as close to a real situation as possible (with your safety and your partner's safety always in mind).

Instructors Commitment to Students

Family Martial Arts Academy instructors are committed to the journey of lifelong learning of our art. We share this commitment with every student who makes the choice to study with us. It is our goal to provide a positive experience for students and their families and we have purposefully created an environment in our dojo to that aim. We hold an expectation of ourselves to provide you with the opportunity to learn and achieve your goals in karate as long as you choose to train. Likewise, we hold an expectation of each of our students to show up and do your best at each juncture of your journey.

Thank you for choosing our school for your training. We appreciate this opportunity to work and progress together.

FMAA STRIPES SYSTEM

White	Physical Conditioning	This stripe is based on a series of physical fitness activities (i.e. flexibility, strength, and cardio). Activities vary from push-ups & sit-ups per minute to comprehensive calisthenics and metabolic training drills.
Green	Karate Basics	Knowledge of karate basics (punches, strikes, blocks, kicks, and stances) appropriate to the practitioner's belt level.
Blue	Self-Defense	Knowledge and performance of pre-defined self-defense techniques/principles and kata bunkai, appropriate to the practitioner's belt level.
Yellow	Sparring	Knowledge and execution of simulated combat exercises, such as one-steps, Yakusoku, "test" sparring, point sparring. May include BJJ, Jujitsu, and/or kickboxing applications.
Black	Kata	Knowledge and performance of the primary kata for the target belt level and the kata for the current belt level. (Note: Juniors are only responsible for the primary kata of the target belt level).
Red	Leadership	The requirements to earn this stripe are based on Leadership and Character development. A brief writing assignment must be completed during each quarter that focuses on the leadership traits for each target belt. Red stripe activities may also include reciting the Karate Creed, leading drills in class, SWAT (Students Working As Teachers), etc.
Orange	"Honors" (Optional)	This extra credit stripe acknowledges special and/or advanced topics such as "Reciting the Karate Lineage," Learning a "bonus" kata, learning Kobudo (weapons), learning Tai Chi, MMA participation, Iaido (Japanese Swordsmanship), etc. You can also earn an Orange stripe by performing chores around the dojo, supporting public demonstrations, and attending tournaments.
